"DRINK PLENTY OF COFFEE, if there is sickness around," writes Dr. James Abernethy, in the British Medical Journal. "Coffee is a good preventive of typhoid fever and diphtheria. This has been thoroughly demonstrated. Diphtheria and typhoid germs have been thrown into coffee, and the aromatic drink has invariably killed the germs within an hour. Hence amid contagious conditions, do not neglect among other precautions to drink two cups of coffee every morning for breakfast."

Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe Preached at Methodist Church on The Beginning of Christian Life—George A. Turner Made Choir Director—Next Meeting at First Baptist Church, with New London Preacher.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal church was filled on Wednesday evening for the union evangelistic service, at which Rev. C. H. Ricketts of Greenville Congregational church, presided, and the opening song service was led by the Spooner choral union, under the direction of George A. Turner.
Part of the singers were located in the gallery and the other in the west gallery of the church. The pastors of the nine churches participating were all present except Dr. L.
W. B. Bixler of New London. The church, and occupied seats on the pulpit or behind the chancel rail with Rev. Dr. Kaufman.
After prayer by Rev. J. R. V. of the First Baptist church, Rev. Mr.
Ricketts announced that the meeting next week would be on Tuesday evening at the First Baptist church, with Rev. J. W. Bixler of New London. A number led in prayer and the scripture was read by Rev. G. H. Ewing.
The tenor solo, "A Clean Heart," was expressively rendered by Mr. Turner.
The sermon of the evening was by Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe of Park Congregational church and was a telling presentation of the need of a regenerated life and the obligation upon Christians to become active evangelists in carrying the gospel to those around them. He announced his topic as "The Beginning of the Christian Life," and said that it is the function of Christianity to make a new style of man and woman, and it begins this work with what we call conversion, with what we call the new birth, with what we call faith. Who are the Christian men and women? The great Calvin never issued a finer thought than when he said that the church is a body of regenerated souls. It is a company of converted men and women. This seems so evident that it might be considered axiomatic, but it is disputed today by several classes of people. To the determinist, who says that the course of a man's life cannot be changed, conversion is an absurdity. The evolutionist, too, sees nothing in conversion but a change of direction in a dangerous class that Christian workmen have to meet today are those who say that men don't need any conversion, that they are good husbands, obedient children, that they do good deeds, are kind and considerate, and we are expected to call them Christians. It is not a question of their attitude towards you but towards God.
Jesus Christ came into this world, but in fact they are all wrong. Except there is the new birth, there shall be no salvation, except repentance no citizenship in the kingdom, except faith you shall not see God, said the Master.
It is a great thing in life to come into the orbit of a great human soul, but what of the transformation when Jesus Christ comes into touch and moves along with your life and mine?
Did it mean nothing in the lives of the twelve or of Peter or of Zacharias or of Paul, if it meant nothing in —our life? The beginning of the Christian life is instantaneous and sudden, there is the possibility of the instantaneous transformation of a man into the image of God, and that's the way he saves us if he saves us at all.
Addressing the Christians with intense earnestness, Dr. Howe said that their caution, their now wait, not a question of bringing the world into these meetings. You can't do that, for there's no cowardice like the carnal heart at coming into God. But there is one thing you and I can do.
We can take the gospel to them. They won't read your Bibles, but they have got to read you. They can't get away from you if you personally face them.
You are God's intermediaries, you must tell them face to face that you are concerned for their souls. It is the business of every man and woman who comes into the church to begin to become an evangelist, and this work will go on if the people will do this thing. It will go forward to great results if every man and woman who comes into the church will allow ourselves to be sent out as messengers for the kingdom of God.
The meeting closed with a conservation service.
Before the meeting began the executive committee of the Spooner choral union met at the church and chose George A. Turner as the director of the chorus.

TOAST AND RESPONSE FOR CHRISTMAS SERVICE Will Be Read at Special Gatherings of Knights Templar Christmas Noon.
Columbian commandery, No. 4, K. T., will have its annual Christmas ceremonies in the asylum in Man-temple Christmas day at noon. Commanderies throughout the United States have received the order for the exercise which is as follows: The following resolutions have been prepared by the committee on Chris-mas observance of the grand encampment, Knights Templar, of the United States of America: "To our most eminent Grand Master Henry Warren Rugg, with Chris-mas greetings: May his future be as bright as his shining path of achievement."
The grand master sends the following response:
To the Soldiers of the Temple, the Knighthood of the Cross, the Grand Order of Christian Chivalry—two hundred thousand strong—Greeting and Godspeed:
"It is with profound emotion and sincere appreciation that I respond to the suggestive sentiment, honoring me by its personal reference. Comrades together we have touched heart and hand in Temple faith and works. The prestige of the past, the power of the present, the promise of the future, may well inspire us to continued, loyal, loving service for our cherished order. Prosperous and strong today as never before, it is one of the world's mightiest forces to translate truth of the Christian message into the life of the individual and universal brotherhood."
It is earnestly desired that all true

The Stocks Are Better
The Crows Are Smaller
The Service Is Quicker Holiday buying can be done best at this store — and can be done better now than later. Foresighted folks realizing that assortments are now at their best, and salespeople not yet wearied with extra holiday work, are doing lots of buying these days. By so doing they get better service than if they delayed their shopping until later. So buy early, if you can—early in the day and early in the Christmas month.
A complete Book Store is at your service in the Millinery room.
Our Holiday stock, and the selection shown, is without exception the best ever offered hereabout. Every noted book of recent publication is now in our stock, as well as a splendid assortment of dainty gift books, in appropriate and tasteful bindings, pre-duced especially for gift purposes.
DO NOT FORGET THE SALE OF SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS AT 1-4 OF REGULAR PRICES. BEAUTIFUL-LY BOUND BOOKS, ALL THE STANDARD AUTHORS, IN SETS OF FROM 6 TO 18 VOLUMES. THE GREATEST SALE OF HANDSOME BOOKS THIS CITY HAS EVER KNOWN. IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE THIS BOOK OFFER-ING.

greatest variety of styles and qualities, but it offers unequalled values.
We have been preparing for the Holiday trade by collecting the best kinds made.
